1. Any person who is a producer of agricultural products in the trade territory in which the Cooperative is engaged in business may become a voting member of this Cooperative by purchasing a $10 share of Common Stock. The term producer shall include lessees or tenants or landlords who receive as rent a share of part of the crops raised on leased properties. A person shall be considered a producer of agricultural products if he/she is personally engaged in raising crops or livestock or has an equity financial investment in such venture.

Or, any person who is not a producer of agricultural products in the trade territory in which the Cooperative is engaged in business may become a Participating Member by purchasing a $10 share of Preferred Stock.

2. Please answer all the following questions so that we may determine your eligibility to hold Common or Preferred Stock; only agricultural producers are eligible to hold Common Stock. All memberships subject to board approval.

- A. Are you a producer of agricultural products? Yes No
- B. Do you own agricultural farm property? Yes No
- C. Do you receive a share of the crops as rent? Yes No

3. Consent: The undersigned, whether one or more, does hereby apply for membership in the Stratton Equity Cooperative Company, Stratton, Colorado, does hereby consent that the amounts of any distribution with respect to his/her patronage occurring on or after April 1963, which are made in written notices of allocation (as defined in 26 U.S.C. 1388) and per unit retain allocations which are received by him/her from the cooperative, will be taken into account by him/her at their stated dollar amounts in the manner provided in 26 U.S.C. 1385(a) in the taxable year in which such notices of allocation are received by him/her.

4. In order that we may keep an accurate record of your patronage, please indicate below the name of the person, partnership, or corporation, that you will be doing business under and the address. All transactions with the Cooperative should then be done under that name. If any change or changes occur in name or address after you file this, please notify us. Commercial firms will use their company name.
